SAMPLE CHAPTER

Made Righteous

God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. (2 Corinthians 5:21)

My child,

My Father made Me be sin for you. He allowed all of the sins of mankind to settle in My very being as I hung on the cross for you. I took all of your: disease, mistakes, bad choices, deliberate dishonesty, rebellion, anger and unbelief. These sins became part of My being during the time I carried them for you. You see, My Father knew that this was necessary. The price had to be paid, My blood had to be shed, My body needed to be broken. I had to become sin, so that you might be free.

As I became the perfect sacrifice for you, a divine exchange took place that would rock the world and change hearts for eternity. By My Father's hand, your sin was extinguished and by doing so, you received in its place, His righteousness. You no longer have a debt, you are free, but more than this, in you lies His righteous Holy Spirit that sanctifies you and places in you His character with right standing in His eyes. You were forever changed by the cleansing of My blood. I received your sin, you received His righteousness.

The sin I took for you could not hold Me. I arose triumphant over sin and death and your sins were cast away, never to be remembered by My Father again. It is so hard for you to accept that you have been given this gift. One, you know without righteousness, (you) has now become righteous through believing in Me. Know that My sacrifice far exceeded your debt. Know that as I became sin for you, you became: whole, forgiven, redeemed, and without sin. You need only to stop and remember that this divine exchange has indeed taken place. It occurred well before you were born, but was intended for you. You cannot stop this supernatural transaction, it is finished; once for all of your sins, with adequate payment for them all.

Be careful not to reject the very gift that My Father intended to be the anchor of your salvation. My Father's righteousness is the foundation for living in the other gifts of your salvation. When you understand that in Me, you have been made righteous, you will know what it is to be truly loved. You will understand what forgiveness entails; you will know how it feels to live without condemnation, free of guilt and shame, and washed clean by the blood of the lamb. Peace will reign and joy will ensue.

Step into the gift of righteousness you have been given. Let this gift envelop you like a white robe that covers what was once unclean, but now is pure and holy. Understand that you could not ever earn My Father's righteousness. Nothing you could do or say or any price you could pay would warrant something of this value and consequence. You will never be worthy in yourself. Do not worry or lament over this fact, but rejoice in knowing I am worthy enough for you. I have paid the price by becoming sin for you. It is finished.

My Father made a covenant for you to assure you having His righteousness. He guaranteed that: He would remember your sins no more and you are reconciled to Him, the God of all creation. It is important for you to believe that you are righteous, as children of the Most High God. This is His desire for you. Receive this gift, wear it for My glory, settle into your righteous position, and right standing through Me.

Jesus

Jesus tells us that He became the perfect sacrifice for us as part of a divine exchange. He received our sin and we received His righteousness. He reminds us that this supernatural transaction has already taken place. His payment was adequate for all of our sins – It is finished! Jesus also lets us know it is His' and our Heavenly Father's desire for us to receive this gift of righteousness, believe that it is ours, and to settle into our position of right standing in Him.
