Let Me

Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him. (Colossians 3:15-17)

My child,

To “let Me” is to give Me permission and opportunity; to release your will to Mine; to allow My will to overrule yours. I will only lead you to things that make you whole. I will be with you for every step. To “let” is to focus on what I am asking of you and not on what is before you; to rest in what is unseen, and set aside the anguish of what is seen.

I desire for you to walk in peace and joy with Me. I desire for your needs to be met and your heart to be full. Let Me take care of you, let Me open up the store houses of heaven and bring supernatural provision and restoration to your home. I need your permission. I will not supersede your will, for it has been given to you, so that you would control your relationship with Me.

Let Me take you deeper. Let Me give you peace in the moment and joy in the morning. Let Me “be” with you. Let yourself know Me, cling to Me and tell Me the desires of your heart. Let Me pick up the pieces when no one else can. Let Me show you what you were created to be. Let Me show you the vision that My Father and I have planted in your heart.

Give Me permission, and great and magnificent opportunities will unfold before you; Opportunities to heal and open your heart; opportunities to know the love for you that comes from the One Living God. Opportunities to feel what it means to be cleansed and made whole by the blood of your Saviour, who wants to save you from the things of this world.

Come close, separate yourself from the things that distract you or clutter your mind. Draw near to Me. Feel the presence of the Holy Spirit, and hear the comfort and encouragement He provides for you. “Let” Me be an integral part of your daily existence. “Let” Me in your world even though you don’t think it is good enough for Me. “Let” Me be with you.

Give Me the opportunity to fill your days with joy and your heart with love. Let Me love you the way the Father intended before the beginning of this world. Let Me hold you close and speak the words you need to hear. Rest My child, in the fact that all you need to do is give Me permission and let Me walk with you. We will walk together in ways supernatural for the world to see, but for only your heart to know the depths of our relationship. “Let” Me be part of your very existence. I am here.

Jesus

Jesus asks us to give Him permission and opportunity to be an active part of our life. He asks us to let Him love us, lead us and take care of us. All we need to do is “Let Him.”
