(SAMPLE CHAPTER)

Nailing it to the Cross

When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your sinful nature, God made you alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins, having canceled the written code, with its regulations, that was against us and that stood opposed to us; he took it away, nailing it to the cross. And having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross. Therefore do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a New Moon celebration or a Sabbath day. These are a shadow of the things that were to come; the reality, however, is found in Christ.

(Colossians 2:13-17)

My child,

It was My pleasure to take from you the requirements of the law that you could not fulfill. It was My joy to lift this heavy burden and attach it to the cross, so that you would no longer be required to carry it around with you.

It was never Our desire for you to be burdened by the yoke of despair that comes from your earthly failures. It was Our desire to show you the desires of a Holy God for the people He loves. Because you were unable to fulfill the requirements of a just and Holy God, I have done this for you. You are in a place of right standing, covered in My Father's love and grace; the law has been fulfilled for you and attached to the cross where We desire it to remain.

When you tear the requirements down from the cross to carry them around with you, you erode the impact for you, in My finished work. So often as it is natural to a man, you may slip into the mindset in which you think you must earn your redemption, or you think you must do certain things to please Us. Perhaps you choose to carry rules or requirements dictated to you by well-meaning believers or perhaps you place your own standards, as Our requirements, forgetting that Our requirements for you have been fulfilled.

The enemy, the accuser, loves to see you carrying with you the evidence of the law. He knows that if your heart resides in accusation and condemnation; the power, peace, and confidence of My love for you is diminished. When you find your heart or mind steeped in accusation or condemnation, remember that the requirements of a just God were literally nailed to the cross for you, fulfilled with all evidence of accusation or legalism intended to be left there. Tell the enemy that you will not carry the accusation any longer, and that I have told you that all accusation against you is nailed to the cross, with the requirements fulfilled by My finished work.

Now rest in all that I have done and all that you are in Me on this side of the cross. Let the requirements of a Holy God remain fulfilled by the only One Who could do this for you. Leave them at the cross in the loving possession of the One Who died to set you free.

Jesus

Jesus wants us to know that we are in a place of: right standing, covered by His Father's love and grace, with the law and its requirements fulfilled for us, and attached to the cross where He and our Heavenly Father desire them to remain. He tells us when we find our heart or mind steeped in accusation or condemnation, we need only to rest in all that we are in Him on this side of the cross, leaving all accusation and condemnation in the possession of the One Who died to set us free.
